FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celebrate a Century of Service with the ‘Junior League of Denver’ Exhibit at Denver International Airport

DENVER – Jan. 23, 2019 – Denver International Airport (DEN) has partnered with the Junior League of Denver for its latest exhibit that highlights the League’s 100-year legacy in the Denver metro area.

Founded in 1918, the Junior League of Denver brings signature programs to the community such as Read2Kids, Done in a Day and Kids Connect. The all-woman organization is comprised of nearly 2,000 members who are committed giving back to their community, developing the potential of women and building strong relationships with women.

The 100th anniversary themed exhibit celebrates the Junior League’s impact on the community. Displays feature photographs, historical artifacts such as a 1928 Follies clutch, legendary Junior League of Denver cookbooks and much more. The display cases are located at the northeast end of the Jeppesen Terminal on Level 5 through May 2019.

About DEN’s Arts Program

The DEN Arts Program administers the City and County of Denver’s “one percent for art” ordinance which enhances public places and features nearly 40 site-specific works including sculptures, murals and other installations. The pieces are displayed in outdoor landscapes, inside Jeppesen Terminal and on airport concourses, as well as in the train tunnels and on the train itself. In addition to its permanent art collection, DEN curates temporary exhibitions, collaborating with museums, cultural institutions and arts organizations to present the highest quality two- and three-dimensional work. For more information, visit www.flydenver.com/art.

Denver International Airport is the fifth-busiest airport in the United States. With more than 61 million passengers traveling through the airport each year, DEN is one of the busiest airline hubs in the world’s largest aviation market. DEN is the primary economic engine for the state of Colorado, generating more than $26 billion for the region annually.
