

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Beer Lovers Rejoice, the DEN Beer Passport is Now Available

DENVER – Oct. 3, 2019 – Beer lovers have another thing to look forward to this October – the Denver International Airport (DEN) Beer Passport! With the passport, travelers can get a free pint of beer after purchasing a beer at each of the four Colorado local breweries at DEN:

- Tivoli Brewery inside Tom’s Urban – Pre-security, on the plaza between the terminal and the Westin
- Breckenridge Brewery – Concourse A, Near Gate A71
- New Belgium Brewing – Concourse B, Near Gate B30
- Great Divide Brewing Co. – Concourse C, Near Gate C32

Passengers can pick up a Beer Passport card at any participating brewery or information booth, located pre-security and on each concourse. After purchasing a beer at one of the participating breweries, users will receive a Beer Passport stamp. Once all four stamps are collected, the Passport can be redeemed at any participating brewery for the free pint of beer.

Rules and regulations apply and can be found online at flydenver.com/beerpassport. Participants must be 21 or older to consume alcohol. The Beer Passport is valid at Denver International Airport brewery locations only and expires on April 1, 2020.

Follow the DEN Beer Passport fun on social media using #DENBeer

Denver International Airport is the fifth-busiest airport in the United States. With more than 64.5 million passengers traveling through the airport each year, DEN is one of the busiest airline hubs in the world’s largest aviation market. DEN is the primary economic engine for the state of Colorado, generating more than $26 billion for the region annually. For more information, check us out on Instagram, like us on Facebook, and follow us on Twitter.

###