Taste of DEN Video Series Kicks off with Recipe from Tom's Urban Kitchen & Brewery

DENVER – Sept. 17, 2020 – As COVID-19 continues to affect travel around the world, Denver International Airport (DEN) is aiming to connect with passengers, whether or not they're flying anytime soon.

The new Taste of DEN series gives people the chance to follow along virtually as chefs from popular restaurants at DEN share a favorite recipe from their menu and demonstrate how to make something delicious at home. In the first episode, Tom's Urban Kitchen & Brewery Chef Robert Garton is showcasing their famous Prime Rib Dip Sandwich.

In the next video of the series, viewers will get a look inside the Root Down kitchen and see one of their most popular recipes. Bon appétit!

Denver International Airport is the fifth-busiest airport in the United States. With more than 69 million passengers traveling through the airport each year, DEN is one of the busiest airline hubs in the world's largest aviation market. DEN is the primary economic engine for the state of Colorado, generating more than $33 billion for the region annually.
