Denver International Airport Adds Another Cuisine Option as New Restaurant Opens

DENVER – April 5, 2021 – Passengers traveling through Denver International Airport (DEN) now have the option to enjoy delicious Vietnamese cuisine at the airport. City Pho has become the first restaurant at DEN to serve Vietnamese classics like pho, banh mi and vermicelli noodle bowls.

City Pho is located on the Concourse B Mezzanine, next to their sister restaurant, City Wok. City Pho features modern twists on Vietnamese food and all menu options are crafted in-house.

“There are fantastic Vietnamese restaurants throughout the city of Denver,” said DEN Senior Vice President of Concessions Pam Dechant. “As an airport, it's our goal to provide our passengers with a taste of the city and it makes total sense that we would have an equally delicious Vietnamese option here at DEN!”

City Pho is officially opened for business this week and will be open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Denver International Airport is the third-busiest airport in the United States and one of the top ten busiest airports in the world. DEN is the primary economic engine for the state of Colorado, generating more than $33 billion for the region annually.
