Job Opportunities Abound at Denver International Airport

DENVER – Sept. 27, 2021 – Denver International Airport (DEN) and Denver Workforce Services are hosting a second in-person job fair this year to fill nearly 1,500 open positions across the airport. The job fair will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 29 from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the plaza that connects the Westin Hotel to the Jeppesen Terminal. Veterans may enter early at 10 a.m.

“Our employees are the lifeblood of the airport and as we continue to see passenger traffic increase, we need to fill these critical positions to keep the airport running efficiently and effectively,” said DEN CEO Phil Washington. “There are more than 1,200 business partners at DEN who have career opportunities requiring various skills and educational levels. The opportunities are endless, and we encourage job seekers to explore the career options and become part of our team at one of the world’s busiest airports.”

This month’s job fair will feature around 50 DEN employers including airlines, concessionaires, rental car companies, and the City of Denver. Part-time, full-time, hourly and salaried positions are available in various employment sectors.

There are many benefits to working at DEN, and many employers offer flexibility on scheduling, parking passes and/or an EcoPass, meal benefits, and even flight benefits, all with very competitive wages, Denver Workforce Services reports.
